A downed tree blocks a road in Putnam County Tuesday, Aug. 4, 2020. Tropical Storm Isaias has started affecting the Hudson Valley with winds and rain — and power outages. (Lanning Taliaferro/Patch)

WESTCHESTER COUNTY, NY — Con Edison electricity customers who lost power because of Tropical Storm Isaias may be in for a wait to have the lights come back on. The power utility said the storm caused about 210,000 customers to lose service.

It is the second largest amount of customer outages in the company's history, according to Con Ed website.

In Westchester, out of 360,045 customers, more than 93,000 were without electricity as of 8:45 p.m. Tuesday.

Local officials said that they were being told that, given the number of outages around the county, residents are urged to plan for an extended period of time without electricity.

Yonkers seemed to take the brunt of the storm with more than 10,200 customers off the grid.

New Rochelle had a little more than 9,000. Mount Vernon had more than 6,000.

Cortlandt and the village of Mamaroneck both had more than 4,000 customers waiting for the lights to come back on.

White Plains, Yorktown, Mount Pleasant, Mount Kisco, New Castle, the town of Mamaroneck and Greenburgh all had between 3,000 and 4,000 customers without electricity.

None of the communities had estimated times of restoration listed on the Con Ed website.

In Westchester, NYSEG was showing almost 28,000 customers without electricity before 9 p.m. Tuesday.

The major outages were:

- Bedford: 3,823
- Lewisboro: 5,292
- North Salem: 2,110
- Pound Ridge: 2,334
- Somers: 8,650
- Yorktown: 5,577

Polling places in New York, such as this one in Mahopac, followed pandemic protocols. (Lanning Taliaferro/ Patch)

UPDATE, 11:30 p.m. Tuesday, June 23 — Voters were still lined up in Mamaroneck to vote at 11 p.m.

Arise Larchmont Indivisible
@Wstchr7Resists

Still lined up at 11:00pm in Mamaroneck NY to vote. Lots of questions and very few answers why this happening. @lohud @MarkLungariello @BrianLehrer

UPDATE, 10 p.m. Tuesday, June 23 — There are reports of people still waiting on line to vote in North Castle, Ardsley and White Plains. If people were standing on line at 9 p.m., when the polls were scheduled to close, they are still eligible to vote.

There are 60,000 people that live in White Plains, NY. Two polls were open today. This is the line after 9pm when polls close. The wait to vote is over an hour long. There are children, elderly and infirm people that are tired and sore from standing up for the right to vote. pic.twitter.com/KihYXFuvv3
— KatBrezler (@KatBrezler) June 24, 2020

Attorney General Letitia James issued a statement regarding the right of voters to cast ballots if they are standing in line at the time polls close:

Democratic primary

Incumbent Rep. Eliot Engel, who has been in Congress since 1989, is being challenged by three others to be the Democratic candidate for 16th Congressional District in November. One candidate — Andom Ghebreghiorgis — dropped out of the race after the ballots were printed. The 16th Congressional District includes the northern Bronx and Yonkers, Mount Vernon, New Rochelle, Mamaroneck, Larchmont, Scarsdale, Eastchester, Bronxville, Tuckahoe, Pelham, Pelham Manor, Rye, Rye City and parts of Ardsley, Hastings-on-Hudson and Edgemont.

The unofficial results are:

360 of 732 election districts at 11:40 p.m.

- Chris Fink: 362
- Andom Ghebreghiorgis: 147
- Jamaal Bowman: 14,115
- Eliot L. Engel: 8,726
- Sammy Ravelo: 249

---

Congressional District 17

Longtime Rep. Nita Lowey is retiring from a district that now includes most of Westchester County and all of Rockland. Nine people from the two major political parties seek to replace the powerful congresswoman, who chairs the House Appropriations Committee. Catherine Parker dropped out of the race after the ballots were printed.

As of 11:30 p.m., the New York State Board of Elections had 223 of 398 districts reporting. The top vote-getter was Mondaire Jones with 43.7 percent of the vote.

Democratic primary

- Catherine F. Parker

- Mondaire Jones
- Adam P. Schleifer
- Allison H. Fine
- Asha Castleberry-Hernandez
- David Buchwald
- Evelyn Farkas
- David Carlucci

Republican primary

As of 11:30 p.m., the New York State Board of Elections had 223 of 398 districts reporting. McArdle Schulman had 73 percent of the vote.

- Maureen McArdle Schulman: 858
- Yehudis Gottesfeld: 272

---

Congressional District 19

Republican primary

Ola Hawatmeh, of Oneonta, is running against Kyle Van De Water, of Millbrook, to be the Republican on the ballot in November for the 19th Congressional District. The winner will challenge first-term Democratic Rep. Antonio Delgado of Rhinebeck.

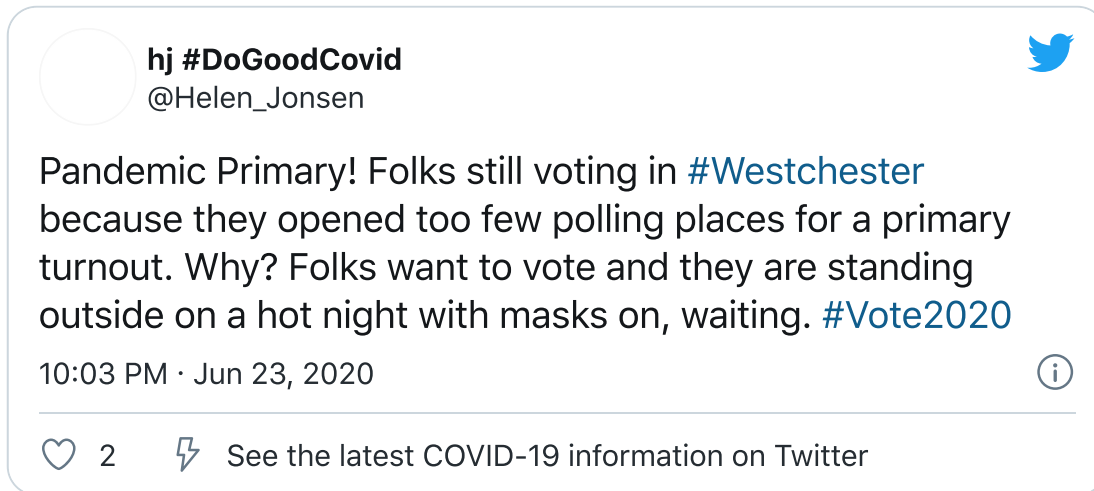

The 19th District is made up of Columbia, Delaware, Greene, Otsego, Schoharie, Sullivan, Ulster counties and part of Broome, Dutchess, Montgomery and Rensselaer counties.

322 of 330 election districts at 11:40 p.m.

- Ola Hawatmeh: 5,405

"Any voter standing in line to vote at the time that polls close must be allowed to vote. If you are in line to vote, stay in line. There is no ambiguity about it, and if anyone is told otherwise, we strongly implore them to report it to my office at: ag.ny.gov/election-hotline."

HUDSON VALLEY, NY — Absentee ballots, early voting, different polling places — Hudson Valley voters have braved a lot of changes due to the new coronavirus pandemic to pick their preferred candidates in a lot of regional primaries. The races included U.S. Congress, state Senate and Assembly and Westchester District Attorney.

State election officials said county boards of elections have received a historically high number of absentee ballots for all the June 23 primaries due to the coronavirus pandemic. Unofficial election night results do not include the results of absentee ballot voting. Absentee ballots must be postmarked by June 23 and received by the Board of Elections no later than June 30, 2020 to be counted, as per New York State Election Law Section 8-412(1).

Here are Primary Night vote results as posted by the state Board of Elections. Patch will keep you updated as the process goes on. For the profiles that candidates submitted to Patch, click on their hyperlinked names.

Congressional District 16

- Kyle Van De Water: 4,975

New York State Senate

District 34

Democratic Primary

The first term senator who unseated once-powerful Jeffrey Klein faces a challenger who considers her too progressive. The district covers part of the Bronx and part of Westchester, and there are 114,701 active enrolled Democrats, and 108,307 of them are Bronx residents, according to the New York State Board of Elections.

With 266 of 274 districts reporting, Biaggi had 78 percent of the vote.

- James B. Gisoni
- Alessandra Biaggi

District 38

The incumbent, David Carlucci, chose to run for Congress. Five people are vying to replace him, and the winner of the Democratic primary will face the winner of the Republican primary. The oddly drawn district includes all of Rockland County plus a tiny section of Westchester across the Hudson River.

Democratic primary

With just 27 of 68 districts reporting as of 11:30 p.m., Justin Sweet had a lead with 41 percent of the vote according to the state board of elections.

- Justin L. Sweet
- Elijah Reichlin-Melnick
- Eudson T. Francois

Republican primary

With just 27 of 68 districts reporting as of 11:30 p.m., the state elections board said Bill Weber had 70 percent of the vote.

- William J. Weber, Jr.
- Matthew R. Weinberg

---

New York State Assembly

District 91

Democratic primary

Incumbent Assemblyman Steven Otis is being challenged for the Democratic line on the November ballot by Rye resident Meg Cameron, is co-owner of Scuderia Cameron Glickenhaus, New York's only car manufacturer. Assembly District 91 includes Larchmont, Mamaroneck, Rye, Port Chester and portions of New Rochelle.

45 of 101 election districts reporting at 11:40 p.m.

- Steven Otis: 825
- Meg Cameron: 936

District 92

Democratic primary

Incumbent Assemblyman Tom Abinanti is being challenged by Jennifer Williams of Irvington. The 92nd District includes the all of the towns of Greenburgh and Mount Pleasant.

59 of 123 election districts reporting at 11:40 p.m.

- Tom Abinanti: 1,141

- Jennifer Williams: 1,311

District 93

Democratic incumbent David Buchwald chose to run for Congress. Five people seek to replace him.

With all districts in, the New York Board of Elections reported the day's totals as:

Democratic primary

- Kristen Browde: 1,291
- Chris Burdick: 1,421
- Jeremiah Frei-Pearson: 935
- Mark Jaffe: 307
- Alexander Roithmayr: 427

---

Westchester District Attorney

Democratic primary

Incumbent Westchester County District Attorney Anthony Scarpino Jr. is being challenged for the job by former federal prosecutor Mimi Rocah.

14 of 949 election districts reporting at 11:40 p.m.

- Anthony A. Scarpino Jr.: 978
- Mimi Rocah: 2,721

HUDSON VALLEY, NY—Target officials announced Monday that its stores will not be open on Thanksgiving Day this year.

The major retailer has five stores in the Hudson Valley:

- 4120 Palisades Center Dr, West Nyack, NY 10994
- 2001 South Rd, Poughkeepsie, NY 12601
- 1 N Galleria Dr #140, Middletown, NY 10941
- 195 N Bedford Rd A, Mt Kisco, NY 10549
- 9 City Pl, White Plains, NY 10601

"Historically, deal hunting and holiday shopping can mean crowded events, and this isn't a year for crowds," the company said in a news release.

According to the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, the more people interacting at a "gathering" and the longer that interaction lasts, the higher the potential risk of becoming infected with and spreading COVID-19.

Target officials said they are continuing to work on additional ways to minimize the risk and spread of the coronavirus by ensuring that a customer's store experience is as convenient—and contactless—as possible.

Starting in October and continuing throughout the season, shoppers can reportedly purchase holiday deals earlier than before. The deals will be available both in stores and online, according to Target.

After shoppers enjoy that last piece of Thanksgiving turkey, Target officials said they will also be able to kick back, relax and avoid the extra-long lines by taking advantage of opportunities to score hot deals before and after Nov. 26.

"This year more than ever, a joyful holiday will be inseparable from a safe one, and we're continuing to adjust our plans to deliver ease, value and the joy of the season in a way that only Target can," Target CEO Brian Cornell said.

Target is not the first major retailer to announce it will be closed on Thanksgiving Day. Less than a week ago, Walmart said it, too, will be closed during the holiday so associates can spend the time with friends and families.

"We know this has been a trying year, and our associates have stepped up. We hope they will enjoy a special Thanksgiving Day at home with their loved ones," said John F. President and CEO of Walmart U.S. "We are certainly thankful to our people for a their efforts." >

GREENBURGH, NY — Mega-online retailer Amazon will be opening a last-mile facility in the Elmsford warehousing portion of the town of Greenburgh. Supervisor Paul Feiner wrote about the development in a recent email.

He also said Tesla was retrofitting the former Joyce Leslie building on Route 119 for a showroom/dealer location and a ShopRite supermarket was approved for along the Saw Mill River Road.

Feiner said an Amazon spokesperson said the company was excited to continue its investment in the state of New York with new AMXL operation in the town.

"Amazon has long provided delivery of large products such as televisions to couches, and we're excited to continue expanding this offering to customers in the Westchester County area," the spokesperson said.

Amazon is expected to have the facility open in 2020.
